Sri B.Kesava, Permanent Male Nursing Orderly,Government Wenlock Hospital,Mangalore from 25-1-1940,proceeded to Military duty on 11-12-1944 a.n. He rejoined duty after release from the Army on 18-4-1947 afternoon.

His pay could not be fixed in the revised scale of 17-½-A-25 as his documents relating to war service were not received from the Military Accounts Officer. The information was received by the District Medical Officer,Mangalore only on 23-2-1949.

The District Medical Officer after receiving the information fixed his pay in the revised scale and submitted an arrear claim bill to Accountant-General,Madras on 25-3-1949.

The Accountant-General objects that arrear claim should be limited only to the period of one year prior to 25-3-1949. As the claim was not delayed on account of the default of the Male Nursing Orderly or any body else it is requested that Government will be pleased to authorise the Accountant-General to the investigation and pay the arrears due to the Male Nursing Orderly from 1-1-1947 on account of the fixation of his pay under G.O.No.76, Finance, dated 6-2-1947..
